FROM THE CLERGY

Where I Find Joy

Shalom. By way of introduction, I’d like to tell you about some of the things that give me joy.

I love calendars. They form connections. Birthdays and anniversaries connect me to family and friends. Significant national dates anchor me to places and history. And the Jewish calendar connects me to my values and to the cycle of the year.

This year, August corresponds to most of Av and the start of Elul, the 11th and 12th months of our liturgical year. Preparation for the fall holidays intensifies, which brings me to more things I love.

I love making music with others, so meeting with our choirs and the other musicians who enrich our services is a real joy. The familiar words of our special prayers evoke memories of past holy days. New words create new meanings and are the foundation for forming new memories. Rehearsing joins the creating of music with the words we pray together.

Rabbi Alan Lew (z’l), a noted teacher and author, used running the bases as a metaphor for our yearly journey around the sun. (Baseball is another thing I really enjoy.) This yearly circuit is another point of connection, reminding us where we were in years past. If Sukkot is our starting place, we have rounded 3rd and are headed for “home.”

Thank you for welcoming me to your home, Baltimore Hebrew Congregation. I look forward to meeting you and I hope you will share with me the things that bring you joy.

May this month, whatever it signifies for you, be one of connections and meaning.

– Cantor Kohn

A RABBINIC INTERN: NEW TO BHC

Mikey Hess Webber is something new to BHC and we are glad to welcome her. Mikey, in her second year at the Reconstructionist Rabbinical College in Philadelphia, is studying to be a rabbi. Even though it is quite unusual for BHC to have a Rabbinic Intern, we scooped her up to learn from her and help nurture a future rabbi. Mikey will be teaching in our Shabbat Education and Confirmation programs, helping out in other educational programs, and assisting our rabbis on and off the bema. Most of the week, she will be in Philadelphia, but we look forward to her being quite active at BHC when she is in town. We are thankful to the Mildred and Alvin Blum Youth Education Program, Leah and Morton Kemper Family Education Enrichment Program Fund and The Rabbi Morris Lieberman Lecture Fund which has enabled us to engage a Rabbinic Intern for the 2017-18 year.

GREAT NEWS FOR MEMBERSHIP DUES!

Baltimore Hebrew Congregation is a vibrant, diverse and active community and congregation, and we are excited to announce that we have restructured our dues for you. BHC is the only Reform synagogue in Baltimore to offer voluntary dues for first-year members of any age and for congregants under the age of 30.

At BHC, we are always looking to strengthen our congregational community and the lives of our congregants. There is no doubt that BHC is better with you. Our community is lifted up by each individual. Similarly, this congregational community has much to offer you.

Meet with Jo Ann Windman, Executive Director, to learn more about our great community, our membership details and to have a tour of BHC. INFO: Jo Ann Windman, 410-764-1587, ext. 223 or baltimorehebrew.org/dues.
A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT: STEVEN SHARFSTEIN

On The Next Generation of Reform Jews

When I was 13, I did something radical as far as my family was concerned. The year was 1955 and although I remember some exhortations from the rabbi for continuing Jewish learning after my Bar Mitzvah, my parents, relentlessly secular, strongly suggested to me that “enough was enough.” Bar Mitzvah was more a social rite of passage than anything else in those days in Great Neck, New York. What I did was join (and become president of) the small youth group at Temple and become active with NFTY (now called the North American Federation of Temple Youth), attending conclaves and other retreats, becoming a counselor at the Reform Judaism’s Eisner Camp in Great Barrington, Massachusetts, in my senior year of high school. And I was a leader in my Confirmation class. I learned about social action. I became an ardent Zionist, and my identity as a lifelong Reform Jew was solidified.

The post Bar Mitzvah period is, I believe, critical in the formation of a Jewish identity. Identity formation is the key developmental task of adolescence. What we offer at BHC for our kids will help determine our future and the future of the Reform movement.

NEXTGEN: The Millie and Alvin Blum 8th-12th Grade Teen Program at BHC launches this fall. Under the dynamic leadership of Brad Cohen and Lauren Offermann, it provides an extraordinary menu of Jewish learning and social opportunities for our post-Bar/Bat Mitzvah kids. It is designed to allow teens to navigate their Judaism and build their own teen community at BHC. NEXTGEN opportunities include “Taste Of” classes, more intensive “labs” in such areas as advocacy and bioethics, immersion programs, travel (NFTY), social action and more. As teens participate they will be learning tangible life skills such as public speaking, debate, and even Jewish cooking. This hands-on learning is designed to create substantial relationships as they get to know each other on a deeper level. The menu of options is broad and flexible.

When unveiled recently to a group of teens and their parents, this NEXTGEN initiative was greeted with much enthusiasm. NEXTGEN recognizes that in today’s society teens are over-programmed, and the range of offerings, dates and topics and the flexibility to create one’s unique Jewish identity was particularly appreciated by both parents and teens alike. We thank Marc Blum and family for underwriting the program and for their continued commitment to BHC and our youth.

I recently met three teens volunteering at BHC and they were very excited about the program. Each had their own take on what they would pursue. With expert help from Lauren and Brad, they are on their way to becoming BHC’s and Reform Judaism’s next generation of leaders.

Videostreaming for Shabbat and High Holy Day services is available by visiting ustream.tv/channel/baltimore-hebrew-congregation. Registration is not necessary and this service is completely free. We do our best to videostream all of our services; however there is no guarantee the recording will be uninterrupted or complete.

BLOOD DRIVE THANK YOU
To Our Blood Drive Donors and Volunteers: Thanks to you, BHC and the American Red Cross, we had another successful Blood Drive on June 19. Your commitment and generosity have offered the gift of life to many patients in need, and you are to be commended for taking part in this important endeavor. We were able to collect 26 pints of blood. A special thank you to the wonderful volunteers who helped the Blood Drive run so smoothly: Marilyn Fisher, Connie Getzow, Lisa Hirsh, Gerri Kobren, Sandy Pollinger and Marcia Rosenblatt. Thank you for your continued support.

- Betty Fink and Phyllis Zimmerman, Blood Drive Co-Chairs

HOORAY FOR
BHC staff member David Weis was honored at the Pearlstone Center for Sustainability on June 15. He was recognized for Sustainability Action with his two Associated partners, Ben Gershowitz and Marc Smolarz, with whom he has worked for 12 years. Together, they are working to develop a 20-acre photovoltaic solar energy field that will supply about half of The Associated’s, Baltimore’s largest congregations’ and Jewish day schools’ electric energy. It will both save money and provide carbon and pollution free power. Congregant Joan Plisko presented the Pearlstone plaque to David.

David was also highly involved in the Rain Garden, located next to E.B. Hirsh Early Childhood Center, which was inaugurated in 2016 just before Rosh Hashanah. It filters storm water from the parking lot from pollutants. He has also developed many energy-saving projects at BHC including LED installation and a wireless energy control system that saves at least $2000 per month.

Program Highlights

MAKING CONNECTIONS WITH YOU
It is with great excitement that I join the BHC family as the new Coordinator of Engagement and Programming. I look forward to getting to know the community and being a part of meaningful programming that brings people together. I received my B.A. in Comparative religion from Miami University of Ohio. While in school, I worked as an engagement intern and as a marketing intern for Hillel: The Association of Jewish students. I also spent two years working as the student intern for the Comparative Religion Department and Jewish Studies program.

The best part of my job is connecting people to Judaism. The only way I can do that is with your help. If you have ideas or suggestions, or want to get more involved, let me know. The only way I can be successful is with the help of each and every one of you. Together we can all feel more of a connection to our Judaism and to each other.

Nicki Barrett
Coordinator of Engagement and Programming
SPECIAL PRAYERBOOK PREPARES US FOR HIGH HOLY DAYS

BHC will be using Mishkan Halev, a new prayerbook for Selichot and the Friday nights leading up to Rosh Hashanah, starting on August 25. Mishkan Halev is a companion volume to the machzor, Mishkan HaNefesh, the High Holy Day prayerbook that BHC has used since 2015 and complements our regular Shabbat prayerbook. In the month prior to Rosh Hashanah, we will have a chance to both celebrate Shabbat and to prepare our hearts for our annual cycle of repentance. On Saturday night September 16, our Selichot service of High Holy Day preparation will be enhanced by the use of this new liturgy.

TOUR DE TORAH: A SHABBAT BIKE RIDE

We are thrilled that our annual summer bike ride will continue this summer on Saturday, August 19, 9 AM. We will begin on the side of the Monkton Station building, then proceed up the trail to the Mason-Dixon Line and perhaps beyond into New Freedom, PA for a healthy lunch. Andrew Haines, a BHC congregant, will lead this ride on the NCR trail, pausing for an outdoors-themed brief Torah study. The route is about 25 miles round trip, with the return being mostly downhill. Bike riders of all experience levels are welcome. INFO & RSVP: Nicki Barrett, Coordinator of Engagement and Programming, nbarrett@baltimorehebrew.org or 410-764-1587, ext. 246.

FALL BEREAVEMENT GROUP

On Sunday September 10, 10:30 AM BHC’s fall Bereavement Group, “When You’ve Lost A Loved One,” will begin, continuing for six consecutive Sundays. This group is a chance for BHC members and their family to be supported by our community. Robert Cohen, PhD, PA will be the facilitator. We like to have a minimum of six participants. There is no charge to attend. INFO & RSVP: Carol J. Caplan, BHC Cares Chair 410-764-1587, ext. 270 or carolcjca@comcast.net.

SUKKAH DECORATION

BHC is blessed with several sukkot every year, plus beautiful and historic decorations for our Sanctuary Bema during Sukkot. As with so many congregational projects, we are looking to blend our ongoing and new volunteers in this creative and communal project. We are looking for new and old volunteers to participate; bring the family. Decoration of the Sukkah and Sanctuary Bema will take place on Sunday, October 1, 10 AM-8 PM and Monday, October 2, 10 AM-2 PM. Donations of evergreens and hydrangeas are welcomed and appreciated. INFO: Marcia Rosenblatt, twimar@verizon.net.

ADULT B’NAI MITZVAH AND ADULT BEGINNER HEBREW CLASSES

Interested in becoming an Adult Bar/Bat Mitzvah? We are beginning a new, two-year-long class this fall. Cantor Sacks will teach BHC congregants in an Adult Beginner Hebrew class on Sunday mornings. This class is for adults with little or no Hebrew reading ability and will fulfill the beginner Hebrew requirement for the Adult Bar/Bat Mitzvah program. Take it as a stand-alone educational course or as the beginning of your journey to becoming an Adult Bar/Bat Mitzvah, where you will continue your exploration of Hebrew in your second year. UNDERSTANDING PRAYERBOOK HEBREW

Did you ever wonder what all those Hebrew words that you recite in Shabbat services mean? Now is your chance to find out! Beginning in September, Cantor Sacks will be offering a Sunday morning course that will introduce basic prayer book Hebrew vocabulary and grammar. The class will continue through the spring and coincide with the Youth Education calendar. Basic decoding skills are required for this class. INFO: Becky Gutin, bgutin@baltimorehebrew.org or 410-764-1587, ext. 250.

SCREEN TIME

This summer my family and I are struggling with screen time. I have a six-year-old who moans, “But Mom, being on the tablet is the only thing that makes me happy!” Just like the mouse, Applesauce, in Ann Droyd’s parody “If You Give a Mouse an iPhone,” Benjamin loses all sense of time, location and body. Only when we forcibly take the tablet away or if, mercifully, the charge expires, then Benjamin, like Applesauce, realizes he is hungry or he is ready to play. I remember how this all started. We were in a restaurant with friends. The grown-ups were talking and Benjamin was the only child at the table. He was under two at the time. We gave him our phone to play with so we could continue our conversation. The phone became our go-to when we needed just a few minutes to get something done. Now when it is time to leave the house, the response is “No, Mom, I want to stay home.” A tantrum to pull him away from the screen follows. What have we done?

My family is far from alone in this struggle of real life versus screen time. I have read articles, spoken with experts and asked for advice on Facebook. We have tried everything: screen time earned for good behavior, screen time taken away for bad behavior, trust method, parent control method (Benjamin found a way around each parent control) and just plain hiding the devices. We have had family meetings and parent dictatorships. To be honest, the one thing we have not been able to do is to be consistent and to keep to one method for a long period of time. It takes incredible willpower and strength not to give in and give him the tablet.

We have learned to keep an ace in our back pocket for when we want Benjamin away from the device. This includes a deck of cards, a puzzle, a book, or playtime outside. I have no answers but to suggest that, whatever you do, you should be consistent; make sure you are on the same page with family members and give the method you choose for good behavior, screen time taken away for bad behavior, trust method, parent control method (Benjamin found a way around each parent control) and just plain hiding the devices. We have had family meetings and parent dictatorships. To be honest, the one thing we have not been able to do is to be consistent and to keep to one method for a long period of time. It takes incredible willpower and strength not to give in and give him the tablet.

For a bibliography and on-line resources, or if you would like to join me in a discussion on the topic of screen time, email me, jeisen@baltimorehebrew.org. Maybe together we can brainstorm ideas or just to be there for each other.

CAMP BHC

We have an amazing opportunity to host a week-long camp at BHC for our BHC members. This year Camp BHC will be Monday-Friday, August 21-25. It will be our fourth year running the camp, which has moved from June to August to fit the needs of families.

So why do we run a one-week camp? It provides BHC with a chance to fully immerse the kids in the BHC Jewish environment. Activities, games, words, blessings, field trips, leadership, and more enable staff to create this environment. We are also able to hire our amazing BHC teens and provide them with experience being a counselor and Jewish Educator.

If you are interested in signing up your child for an wonderful, flexible (1-, 2-, 3-, 4- or 5-day option), warm, Jewish experience, it’s not too late! INFO & REGISTRATION: Brad Cohen, Director of Education at 410-764-1587 ext. 290.

ENGAGING OPPORTUNITIES FOR ALL

Chai Life started the summer with our Shabbat Dinner at BHC after a Shabbat Service in early June. We’ve also played mini-golf, gone to see “Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat” at Toby’s Dinner theater, enjoyed an Orioles game, and completed a service project with Repair the World at Baltimore Station. There’s something for everyone and babysitting options through BHC exist for young parents to have a night off with us.

Coming up we are meeting at Canton Waterfront Park for First Thursday, August 3. This is a free event, and snacks and drinks will be provided. Additionally, join us for Shabbat dinner on Friday, August 25 as one of our members hosts. Chai Life Kickball returns this fall, and sign-ups are going on now. MEAL MAKERS

BHC Cares offers meals to Congregants at difficult life moments. For example, we serve those who have lost a loved one, brought home a new baby or are recovering from illness. Making and delivering meals is a rewarding experience. Sharon Edlow, chair, coordinates this project with assistance from Jean Fedder and Shirley Simon. Much appreciation to recent meal makers Sheri Land, Cindy Richards, and Jane West Walsh and to all meal providers, as well.

BROTHELORD OPENING DINNER

Enjoy “Sweet and Low Down: Songs for the Starry-Eyed and Worldly-Wise,” our 2017 Opening Dinner, on Sunday, September 10, 6 pm, featuring Wendy Baird, soprano and Jonathan Jensen, bass. Wendy has been singing on the musical theatre stage, in the studio, and with big bands and orchestras for nearly 30 years. She has been featured in cabarets at Germano’s Red Branch Theatre Company, for the BSO Associates and others, the Maryland Arts Festival, and more. Jonathan Jensen has played double bass with the Baltimore Symphony since 1983. He grew up in music, which eventually led him to his love of the Great American Songbook and his activities as an accompanist for cabaret artists.

Cocktail hour begins at 6 pm, dinner at 7 pm and the program following. The cost is free to paid up Brotherhood Members and $20 for others. All are welcome. INFO & RSVP: baltimorehebrew.org/bhopeningdinner or Sid Bravmann, 410-952-6352. Reservations are needed by Thursday, August 31.

BROTHELORD BREAKFAST

We hope everyone is enjoying their summer; we have been working hard to create a great lineup for this season’s breakfast series. Our first breakfast is on Sunday, October 29, 9:30 AM. The program is “Einstein: The World’s Most Famous – and Most Reluctant – Jew,” featuring Steve Gimbel. Steve holds a Ph.D. from Johns Hopkins and is a Pikesville native who spent many Saturdays at BHC. He is a professor of philosophy at Gettysburg College.

Mark the dates for our next breakfasts: Sundays, November 12 and December 17, and stay tuned for the full year’s lineup. Of course, spouses, friends, and other guests are welcome. Free to BHC Brotherhood members and children under 18 and only $10 for guests and non-members (payable at the door). INFO: Sid Bravmann, 410-952-6352.

HARLAM AT 60

WRJ Atlantic and Mid-Atlantic celebrate “Harlam at 60” with a weekend of “glamping.” Friday-Sunday, August 11-13.

Highlights include joining the Camp Harlam community for Shabbat, meals and song sessions. We promise lots of laughter, camaraderie, spirituality and fun. This event is open to all WRJ women. Register today; we only have 50 spots open. The cost is $54, plus lodging. INFO & RSVP: Susan Loether, susan.loether@gmail.com or Debi Nelson, 610-509-6825.

HELP CHICKEN FLICKERS

Join the fun and camaraderie: Become part of the Brotherhood Chicken Flickers. Known as the Iron Chefs of BHC, they cook for over 100 people at times and they make tasty dishes. Whether it’s cooking tenderloin, salmon, or scrambled eggs, it always comes out as good as a catered meal. However, they could use help occasionally to assist with cooking or serving. No experience is needed but you must be a member of Brotherhood. It’s just an enjoyable way to do a Mitzvah and enjoy feeding the program guests. INFO: Sid Bravmann 410-952-6352.

TALES FROM THE CRYPT

Ever wonder who decides to feature someone prominently on the obituary page? Or who writes the obituary? Get answers to these questions at Sisterhood’s Opening Meeting and Luncheon on Sunday, September 10, 11:30 AM. We will hear about “Tales from the Crypt” from Fred Rasmussen, the Baltimore Sun’s preeminent obituary writer. According to the City Paper, Fred has “been bringing the dead to life for 20 of his 40 years at the paper.” Luncheon will be served. More details to come. INFO & RSVP: Debbie Shpritz, dshpritz@gmail.com or 410-363-6280.

SISTERHOOD HOLIDAY BOUTIQUE

BHC’s 23rd Annual Holiday Boutique & Silent Auction will be on Sunday, November 5, 9 AM-4:30 PM & Monday, November 6, 11 AM-5 PM. We are looking for vendors with upscale merchandise such as clothing, accessories, crafts, Judaica, pocketbooks, food, etc. Popular items for our Silent Auction are gift certificates to stores, businesses, restaurants and sports and theater tickets. INFO: Sisterhood Office, ext. 270 or Rachel Lederman, bshholidaysboutique@gmail.com.

MAHJONG

Want to learn how to play Mahjong? Join a group of beginners at the home of Harriet Stulman on Wednesdays, 10:30 AM. Bring along your Mahjong set, if you have one. To play, you will need a current Mahjong card, available at the Judaica Shop. Reservations requested to ensure adequate playing room. INFO & RSVP: Harriet Stulman, 410-484-4043 or hstulman@gmail.com
