FROM THE CLERGY

CELEBRATE YOUR SPECIAL OCCASION WITH BHC

One of the most memorable moments during my time at BHC took place a number of years ago when our congregant Anne Veditz, z”l, read the Torah to commemorate her 100th birthday, and a year later, her 101st. She had been marking her birthday for many years in this way, and we all held our breath when the time rolled around for her to have the strength, the mental acuity, and the will to read Torah at age one hundred. What an awesome and inspirational way to celebrate life, surrounded by family, friends and community, by reciting from our ancient scripture in BHC’s magnificent Hoffberger Chapel.

There are many ways to mark, remember, and honor the people and events in our lives. While parties, gifts, and cake are part of our secular culture, for those of us who are searching for meaning and purpose in a Jewish context, we can find other ways that may bring us a deeper sense of satisfaction and spiritual fulfillment. Reading or chanting Torah to mark an anniversary, a yahrzeit, a birthday, or any other significant event can elevate that occasion to the level of the sacred and eternal. It is a powerful way to be a link in a chain that dates back millennia and will continue into the future. If we are remembering a loved one who has passed on, the act of studying Torah for a few weeks and reading from the scroll can enhance and intensify our remembrance and preserve that memory in ways we readily sense and perhaps in ways we cannot perceive. It draws us into our synagogue community that is designed to embrace us, comfort us, and celebrate all of life’s passages with us.

While this may sound like something only the most learned Hebrew-literate Jews can do, let me assure you that if you can decode Hebrew, you can read Torah. The tradition requires that only three verses of Torah need to be read to comprise a Torah reading, so your reading need not be long. And while some of us prefer to chant the Torah, reading Torah is equally acceptable. If you wish to do this and would like some guidance, Cantor Ellerin and I would welcome the opportunity to work with you.

If reading Torah is out of the question, there are many other ways to make a spiritual connection to mark special occasions. Some choose to read the Torah Blessings. Others prefer not to have a speaking role, but come to open the Ark or undress and dress the Torah at our Shabbat morning service. These are all opportunities to add a sacred dimension to our life’s special moments, be they happy or sad. I hope that you will consider sharing your personal life passages with your BHC family through the traditions that are designed to connect us to each other, to our past and to those who come after us.

To find out more or to request to observe a life-cycle event, please contact our Temple Office.

THE JEWISH VALUE OF HELPING TO SOLVE HUNGER

As we celebrated the bounty of food with the Jewish harvest of Sukkot, and soon look forward to Thanksgiving, I can’t help thinking about those who worry each day and each hour about having food. People across Maryland – in every single county and in every single district – children, seniors, veterans, and working families struggle with hunger. Approximately one in eight Marylanders are food insecure, meaning they do not have consistent access to nutritional food or the ability to afford enough food to sustain normal eating. In Baltimore City, one in four working families struggle with hunger. Approximately one in four Marylanders are food insecure, meaning they do not have consistent access to nutritional food or the ability to afford enough food to sustain normal eating. In Baltimore City, one in four working families struggle with hunger.

The BHC community has always tried to make a difference and help feed those in need. We, as a congregation, understand the Jewish value of helping to solve hunger. This value is strongly reflected in our biblical texts when farmers were required to leave the remains of their crops after harvesting in the fields for the poor. This practice of gleaning leads us to BHC’s modern-day view of a strong effort to assist with lessening hunger here in Baltimore. Our congregation partners with two organizations: Our Daily Bread, Maryland’s hot meal program serving more than a quarter of a million hot meals each year, and GEDCO, a faith-based organization in northern Baltimore City to help seniors and others with emergency food assistance. Every year we successfully engage with our High Holy Day food drive where approximately 1000 bags of groceries are collected and donated to GEDCO. But BHC’s support is not just once a year. We think of those less fortunate by volunteering and collecting cans and other non-perishable food for GEDCO all year long. Contributions can be dropped off anytime inside the Hoffberger Chapel entrance. For Our Daily Bread, we encourage our community to participate in the casserole program using the recipes on our website. Additionally, our Brotherhood works with Manna House to provide nutritious breakfasts to the community it serves every Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter mornings.

These efforts by our community are terrific, as are your generous contributions to other food programs, but we can do much more, especially this time of year. We can make it a point to buy extra cans of food when we shop and remember to bring those items to BHC on the way home from the store. As a family activity or even something to do alone in the cold winter months, we can all try to bake a dish for Our Daily Bread and deliver it to BHC. So too, a gift to Mazon: A Jewish Response to Hunger, is perfect anytime, but especially during this time of year. Mazon works with local, state, and federal leaders to protect and strengthen nutrition programs, and it advocates for public policies that address the root cause of hunger. Whether it’s a BHC program or your own act of kindness, by doing something to help those who are hungry, you will truly make Thanksgiving meaningful not just for yourself, but also for others less fortunate.

ELECTION DAY IS NOVEMBER 6

Over the past several months, BHC joined forces with a number of other synagogues, churches, organizations, and a mosque, in efforts to increase civic engagement and voter turnout in the Baltimore region. This non-partisan effort builds on longstanding BHC efforts to encourage voter participation. BHC joined other congregations and public-facing organizations such as the Jewish Museum of Maryland, Baltimore Jewish Council, and the JCC of Greater Baltimore in inviting their constituents to pledge to vote in the upcoming elections. Those who took the pledge will receive reminders of their commitment to vote leading up to November 6. The Civic Engagement Coalition is also helping to put on parties on election day at polling places around the region. These parties have been shown to increase voter turnout in the districts where they are held. There are volunteer opportunities available on Election Day, November 6, if you’re interested. INFO: Leisha Bell, leisha.bell@yahoo.com or Tracie Guy-Decker, tracieguy@gmail.com, and please vote—either through early voting (through Thursday, November 1) or on Tuesday, November 6.

OUR DAILY BREAD: CHRISTMAS CASSEROLES

For more than two decades, members of the BHC community have provided Christmas Dinner for the guests at Our Daily Bread. We continue our service this year with the awareness that for so many of those years, our efforts were orchestrated by Sally Palmbaum, z”l, of blessed memory.

There are many ways to be part of our Christmas Dinner efforts. Here are the needs: 40 turkeys – cooked, sliced and frozen, 60 pans of dressing – prepared and frozen. BHC will provide the pans (Stove Top is fine, 4 boxes per pan). Monetary donations will be used to purchase institutional size cans of green beans, sauerkraut, mashed potatoes, fresh dinner rolls and cake for dessert. Volunteers are also needed – spaces are limited to 40. This opportunity is open to BHC members only. DONATE OR VOLUNTEER: Lauren Yetter, 410-764-1587, ext. 232 or lyetter@baltimorehebrew.org.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

FESTIVAL OF JEWISH LITERATURE

One of my favorite parts of my position here at BHC is all the community programs we get to be a part of. In Baltimore, there are so many congregations and organizations that we can chose to engage with. There is never a shortage of places to go on Shabbat, and there are always too many interesting programs to chose from. It is always wonderful when so many parts of the Jewish community come together to offer something larger for everyone. This month, BHC is lucky to be a part of the first ever Baltimore Festival of Jewish Literature. From November 8-18, there will be events featuring Jewish authors throughout Baltimore. To see the schedule of events please visit the festival website: festivalofjewishliterature.org. BHC will be holding our main event on Sunday, November 11, 9:30 AM, as we hear Dr. Marc Dollinger speak on his recent book, “Black Power, Jewish Politics: Reinventing the Alliance in the 1960s.” While this will no doubt be a riveting talk, there are events throughout the 10 days for every age group on a wide array of topics. I hope everyone is able to take advantage of the first Festival of Jewish Literature.

DISCUSSING SOCIAL JUSTICE: ITS CHALLENGES AND A BOOK

Marc Dollinger Ph.D. is the Richard and Rhoda Goldman Chair in Jewish Studies and Social Responsibility at San Francisco State University. Dr. Dollinger is a nationally respected American Jewish historian, a social activist, and a life-long, committed Reform Jew. He will be looking at Jewish Social Justice from a critical, yet fond, academic perspective. On Shabbat, Dr. Dollinger will speak of social justice in general. On Sunday, he will address his brand-new book on Black and Jewish relations. This Scholar-In-Residence weekend is underwritten by the Rabbi Morris Lieberman Memorial Lectureship Fund. Sunday morning’s breakfast is provided by BHC Brotherhood. Join us for two wonderful learning opportunities:

SATURDAY NOVEMBER 10, 10 AM

Dr. Dollinger will speak during the Shabbat Shelanu service: “The Challenges of Tikkun Olam: Jews, Power, & Privilege.”

SUNDAY NOVEMBER 11, 9:30 AM

Women of BHC will hold its 59th Annual Interfaith Institute, Monday, March 11, 2019, 9:30 AM-2 PM. Our vital and timely topic is “Evangelical Christianity, American Politics, and the State of Israel.” Our Keynote speaker will be Dr. Matthew J. This year our fifth graders are exploring Jewish Sustainability with the Pearlstone Center staff. We will venture up to Pearlstone twice this fall, and the staff will visit BHC in the winter. We strive to connect our students to the Jewish value of Shomrei Adamdah (Guarding the Earth). It is wonderful to have such a willing partner in the Jewish Community.

1ST-7TH GRADE YOUTH GROUP

The youth group calendar has started off strong. After Youth Education on Sunday, November 11, Noon-2 PM, 1st-7th graders are invited to join us for a camp-themed day of fun. We will enjoy a pizza lunch, and then participants will choose between art, science, and sports-themed activities. INFO, RSVP OR VOLUNTEER: Lauren Offermann Luger, contact below.

FAMILY

Family Social Action is on Sunday, November 18, 9-11 AM. This is an exciting opportunity for our families to volunteer and give back to the community. Following, join us for our infamous “Turkey Bowl,” a flag football game from 11 AM-12:30 PM.

HIGH HOLY DAY MADRICH REFLECTS

Being a High Holy Day madrich is one of the greatest things to do during the holidays. It allowed me to reconnect with kids I previous worked with in youth education and see how much they have grown. The dynamic projects allowed everyone to be creative in their own way. I would recommend this experience to anyone who enjoys working with kids in a creative environment. It’s a great way to give back and have fun while doing it.

8TH-12TH GRADE TEEN PROGRAM

Each opportunity for teens at BHC enables them to pick and choose their Jewish path. We offer a range of topics and styles each month to provide programming that makes the teens passionate. In October we had our kickoff event, which was an overnight retreat to Camp Airy. The teens had a blast and got to hear all about what NextGen has to offer. Check out what November brings for teen engagement:

Social Action Lab: Sundays, November 4 & 11, 10:30 AM-Noon and November 25, 8 AM-Noon. Create, plan, and implement a Family Social Action Day for our Youth Education families.

Third Annual Friendsgiving Dinner: Saturday, November 10, 5-7 PM. Enjoy a Mediterranean dinner with all of your friends followed by a social action opportunity.

Rosh Hodesh/Shevet Achim: Monday, November 12, 6-8 PM. Rosh Hodesh uses Jewish teachings to give girls a place to feel safe, articulate their deepest concerns, consider the impact of gender on their daily lives, have fun, and be ‘real’ with their peers, led by Lauren Offermann Luger. Shevet Achim, led by Brad Cohen, helps teen boys explore two primary questions: “What does it mean to be a man?” and “What does it mean to be a mensch?”

NFTY Fall Kallah: Friday-Sunday, November 16-18. This regional weekend retreat will be held at 4Front, through the JCC of Greater Baltimore, Owings Mills. If you are interested in hosting a few awesome Jewish teens for the weekend, please be in touch with Lauren Offermann Luger ASAP.

Cooking Club: Monday, November 26, 6-8 PM. We all enjoy cooking, but this club will take teens on a tour of the past as they make classic Jewish dishes with a backstory. Meets once a month. Dinner is included.

_YOUTH EDUCATION_
E.B. HIRSH EARLY CHILDHOOD CENTER

WHY IS TRUCK DAY SUCH A BIG DEAL?

In October the E.B. Hirsh Early Childhood Center parking lot was opened to all vehicles in many different sizes and for many uses. Fire trucks, police cars (with a police dog), the Cow Ice Cream truck, city maintenance trucks, a horse trailer, a bus, and a digger, just to name a few. What makes Truck Day an important experience for our early childhood children?

Children love vehicles! The best learning opportunities come from a child’s specific interests, especially when their imagination and enthusiasm are ignited. It is important to explore these topics from different angles. Through the study of vehicles children are able to:

• Learn new vocabulary
• Become familiar with men and women in uniform

ANNUAL GIVING

REMEMBER YOUR BHC FAMILY THIS THANKSGIVING - SUPPORT ANNUAL GIVING 2018

At BHC, every congregant is an integral part of a wonderful family, where all are welcome and cherished. This Thanksgiving, as you enjoy the warmth of family and gain inspiration from everything for which we have to be thankful, we ask you to consider making a meaningful gift to Annual Giving 2018. It’s easy, and if you pledge now, you will have until June 2019 to pay your pledge.

You may not know that your membership dues provide only 47% of the yearly revenue that is necessary to:

• Maintain our facility including our building, utilities, and grounds.
• Sustain a dynamic educational program for children and adults.
• Uphold our commitment to our wonderful vibrant congregation.

We are grateful to those of you who have already been so generous to this year’s campaign. Your contribution provides support for BHC’s programs, including worship services, pastoral care, educational activities, community outreach, and a host of other activities. Annual Giving helps to ensure that no one is ever denied membership because of economic difficulties or hardship. Your gift today will ensure that future generations can grow up in a strong community of Jewish tradition and learning.

We all play a vital role in ensuring that BHC has a bright future. Through your generosity, BHC will continue to thrive and be the vibrant community that we all treasure. Thank you.

Director of Development

BROTHERHOOD NEWS

BROTHERHOOD BREAKFASTS

Sunday, November 11
Our first breakfast of the season will be Sunday, November 11, 9:30 AM, when we host BHC’s participation in the Baltimore Festival of Jewish Literature. Our speaker will be Dr. Marc Dollinger. Dr. Dollinger holds the Richard and Rhoda Goldman Chair in Jewish Studies and Social Responsibility at San Francisco State University. He will address his recent book, “Black Power, Jewish Politics: Reinventing the Alliance in the 1960s.” The event is free to all—RSVP by Thursday, November 1 to guarantee breakfast. Those who come without reservations will be served only if enough food is available. RSVP: baltimorehebrew.org/breakfast

Sunday, December 16
Our next breakfast will be Sunday, December 16, 9:30 AM, featuring David London, a storyteller and magician who creates and presents original, interactive magical experiences. He has staged numerous original theatrical magic shows and authored manuscripts related to magic and illusion. David will discuss just what magic is, and lead us through what it means to be a magician. He will also teach us a trick. Visit BHC’s online calendar to RSVP today. Brotherhood events are always free for members, while others are welcome to attend for a small fee. INFO: Sid Bravmann, 410-952-6352 and David Felzenberg, 410-719-1405.

THE WOMEN OF BHC

SNEAK PREVIEW
Mark your calendars for the kick-off event of Women of BHC’s new program of diverse offerings. Join us for “Evening with the Lights Who Guide Us” on Tuesday, December 4. Plans for future “Lights” programs will include an evening of song, another of making crafts to aid those in need, one of games, and at least one with unique learning opportunities with our Clergy. Stay tuned for details!

JUDAICA SHOP
Stop by our Judaica Shop, filled with everything you need for gifts, holidays, and your home. We have unique items for the holidays.

The shop is open Sundays, 9 AM-12:30 PM, Tuesday 4:30-7:30 PM, and Thursdays, 11 AM-1 PM. To schedule an appointment outside of these times, call Paula Cohen, 410-292-4439. All proceeds go to the Women of BHC.

COMMUNITY SHRED EVENT
The Community Shred Event is Sunday, November 18, 1:30-3:30 PM, on the E.B. Hirsh Early Childhood Center parking lot. Paper is all we shred—no cardboard, plastics, metal, or other materials. It is shredded completely right there. Besides raising income, this is an easy, enjoyable mitzvah. All it takes is a couple hours one afternoon; there’s no heavy lifting, and the event affords a chance to help the community as well acquainting folks with our cordial, welcoming Congregation. This would be a good time to thank our faithful regulars: Paula Cohen, Kari Engerman, Ann & Richard Fishkin, Marcia Gampel, Leslie Lichter, Jordan Loron, Cindy Richard, and Debbie & Lou Shpritz, (apologies if anyone was inadvertently missed). We would love to have some new volunteers for this event. INFO & VOLUNTEER: Suzanne Strutt, 410-236-6177 or swstrutt@verizon.net

HOLIDAY BOUTIQUE AND SILENT AUCTION
Our 24th Annual Holiday Boutique is Sunday, November 4, 10 AM-5 PM, & Monday, November 5, 11 AM-5 PM. Besides featuring new vendors along with favorites from previous Boutiques, a Silent Auction will have offerings from congregants, participating vendors, and area merchants. One of Women of BHC’s most important fundraisers, the Holiday Boutique offers goods from specialty foods to clothing items to toys and unique handmade jewelry—providing numerous great ideas for holiday gifts. Also, the Judaica Shop will be open with many new and appealing items. The Holiday Café will be serving soups, sandwiches, drinks, and desserts on both days. Come shop, linger in the café with friends, and shop some more. Volunteers are needed to work with vendors, assist shoppers, and help in the Café (no cooking required)!
