EXPLORATIONS IN MULTIPLE DIRECTIONS

The arrival of summer brings to mind the possibility of exploring. Let me share a few thoughts about my sabbatical explorations this winter and BHC’s offerings of explorations over the summer.

One last time, please allow me to thank the congregation and its leadership for the three month sabbatical and the opportunity it provided to study, live off schedule, and relax. I returned in April refreshed and appreciative. I studied some Kabbalah (Jewish Mysticism) online and Talmud in New York. I spent the polar vortex week studying in Chicago at Northwestern University’s business school, and I took advantage of several other opportunities. My teaching has already been impacted by some ideas and the explorations of this winter.

Summer often brings travel. I am looking forward to this month’s BHC trip to Poland and Germany. On the last Shabbat of June, I look forward to sharing some thoughts about the journey and those countries. As BHC members travel this summer, we hope they enjoy summer camp, the shore, Israel, and beyond. Keep your eyes open for special opportunities to celebrate Shabbat in unusual places. We look forward to hearing of your journeys as well.

Finally, BHC doesn’t sleep during the summer. Join us for services led by our clergy each Shabbat evening, Shabbat morning, Pj Shabbat and Pj Havdalah (see page 5). Family Shabbat does take a break during July and August. This summer, the Lois Rosenfield Caring Fund has enabled BHC to partner with the Jewish Museum of Maryland for some important programs about immigration. Bus transportation will be provided to those programs in the series that occur at the Jewish Museum. Our Youth Education program will be taking its show on the road in a number of ways. Look out for these opportunities. You can explore Summer Nights on Park Heights in July and so many other ways in these slightly more relaxed months. The High Holy Days are late this year, giving us plenty of time to explore here and beyond over the summer.

RECOVERY & RENEWAL: AN IMMIGRATION EXPERIENCE SERIES

On Thursday, June 27, 6:30 pm join us at the Jewish Museum of Maryland for a presentation on “Creating Our American Story.” We hear about immigrants, refugees, and asylees all over the media – but rarely do we get to hear directly from those coming to America to make a new home. Join us as we welcome Senai Abella Obang and Hari Maya Dhamala, two individuals who were forced to flee their homes, eventually settling here in Baltimore. They will share their stories of escaping their homeland and the challenges of building a new home in a foreign land.

On Sunday, June 30, 1 pm join us again at the Jewish Museum of Maryland for “Stories of Survival.” Lola Hahn discovered the story of her family’s Holocaust experience only after reading “Schindler’s List” by Thomas Keneally. The book was filled with familiar names and, in part, told the story of her own mother and aunts. During this very special lecture, Lola will share the experiences of her family, including the phenomenal impact of Oskar Schindler.

Both presentations will be followed by a facilitated discussion and light refreshments (dietary laws observed). A bus will be available from BHC to the Jewish Museum of Maryland and back. 48-hour advance registration required. BHC members use code BHC2019 when reserving your seats for free admission to both the program and bus. To reserve your seat for the program and bus go to the event calendar on jewishmuseummd.org.

These programs are part of the Recovery & Renewal: The Immigration Experience series, presented in partnership with BHC. This series is made possible through the generosity of the Lois Rosenfield Caring Fund of BHC.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

SECURE AND WELCOMING

As I write this column, I am listening to news reports about yet another tragic synagogue shooting. This time it is a Chabad congregation in Poway, California during a Shabbat Service celebrating the conclusion of the Passover holiday. Congregants had come to worship and to remember their ancestors in a Yizkor service.

I cannot explain or understand how these violent acts keep happening. How have we arrived at such a dark space in America and throughout the entire world? When did worshippers at religious services become targets of hatred?

Just prior to the Poway synagogue shooting, we were mourning for the 250 killed in Sri Lanka, for the dozens massacred in New Zealand, for the eleven slaughtered at the Tree of Life Synagogue in Pittsburgh, for those gunned down in Charleston, South Carolina, in Texas, and in too many other places of worship.

Anti-Semitism is on the rise world-wide. Is there anything we can do as a community to counter this hate? We are lucky that our clergy and many congregants are active in BHC and non-BHC programs that reach across lines of faith, race, and difference. Dialogue is absolutely critical, and teaching and acting against hate is a must for us all.

But we need to face the fact that these horrific events confront us at BHC with a new reality. BHC must take steps to make our community a secure and, at the same time, a welcoming place. Our Security Committee, chaired by Marc Plisko, has worked tirelessly to implement new features to keep us as safe as possible while still opening our arms to all who want to be here.

Working with the Security Committee, is our Vision Committee, chaired by John Elias. Vision is looking at ideas for our building that make our sacred space more protected, yet still accessible to all. This input is being used to work with our architects as we update the plans for the new Slade Avenue entrance and the enhanced Adalman Lobby.

As I hope you know, the clergy and I are open to a discussion anytime. I personally have encouraged our political leaders, religious leaders, and community leaders to renounce hate and hate groups. For the sake of our children, I hope we see a profound difference in the culture of tolerance, but until then, we here at BHC will continue to make worship and community life vibrant and safe for all.

– Richard D. Gross
BHC President

MEAL MAKERS

Offer a gesture of love by providing meals to fellow congregants during various life-cycle moments. Those who have lost a loved one, brought home a new baby, or who are recovering from illness all appreciate the support of their fellow community members. Join the “Meal Makers” team and support the community at a time that works for you. Volunteer to make as many or few meals as you would like. Take the burden of cooking dinner from someone’s shoulders when they need it the most. INFO

LIVE AND UNSCRIPTED

Baltimore Hebrew Congregation thanks all who made our 9th annual Night of the Stars, honoring long time BHC congregants and community leaders Peggy K. & Fred Wolf III, a rousing success! The Dalshere Theater was filled with laughter. We couldn’t have done it without you.

Your generosity will help support our youth community including the E.B. Hirsh Early Childhood Center and Youth Education. It will also have a significant impact in our efforts to provide the best in Jewish educational opportunities to our youth so they will continue to grow up with a strong Jewish identity.

We hope you enjoyed Susie Essman – Live and Unscripted and will return next year to enjoy our 10th annual Night of the Stars.

E.B. HIRSH EARLY CHILDHOOD CENTER

THE END MEETS THE NEW
On a Sunday morning, where the clouds over-head kept the air cool, E.B. Hirsh Early Childhood Center families worked together to transform the winter garden to a soon-to-be lush summer garden. We planted the usual, cucumbers and tomatoes and beautiful flowers. We also planted sugar and English peas, carrots, lettuce, onions, chocolate mint, corn, and broccoli. The children harvest the organic vegetables throughout the summer and fall. Often, they eat their harvest right where they are standing. The garden enables the children to taste vegetables they may not have eaten before or swear they do not like. The teachers help them water and weed their garden. A big thank you to Anne-Claire Tejtel and Maya Nornhold, Shauna Anthony, Nathan, Magnolia, and Olive Howell, Brian and Lillie Katzenberg, Kim and Avi Jacobs, Beth, Madden and Briar Landsman, Melissa, David, Brianna and Gabriella Weisman, Helen and Ben Borisova-Yapici, and Ariel and Charlie Belle Grinspoon, with a special appearance by Morah Alison Berlin for making the morning special and creating our lovely garden.

To celebrate the hard work we did, we released our pet red wiggly worms into the garden to continue the work of keeping the plants healthy. You may remember we received our mail-order worms from George last June. They had multiplied into over 1,000 worms.

A heartfelt thank you to Carrie Moore for being our PTA chairperson for two years. A hearty welcome to our new co-chairs, George Adams and Mark Grinspoon. The PTA provides us with field trips, teacher appreciation week, our garden, healthy snacks, and our hot lunches and so much more. Thank you to the regular contributors to the PTA, Julie Cohen and Lauren Goldberg.

Thank you to the guidance of our advisors Sharon Edlow, Ed Perl and Peggy Wolf. They provide advice and a sounding board every time we need them. They keep our cogs running smoothly.

Thank you to the educators and staff of E.B. Hirsh Early Childhood Center. They are the busy bees that pollenate our children to learn and grow into mighty individuals with confidence and competence.

E.B. Hirsh Early Childhood Center is open for 2019-20 enrollment. Contact Jill Eisen to schedule a tour, or come to an open house, 410-764-7281 or jeisen@baltimorehebrew.org.

HOFFBERGER GALLERY

VISUAL DIARIES:
LAND AND SEA
By Paula Reynolds
Exhibit: through June 24

About the Artist: Paula has been a Fine Art photographer for over 20 years, working in series, most notably Ocean and Landscape documentation. A graduate of The Maryland Institute College of Art, her photographs have been shown in several East Coast galleries and exhibitions, and are included in collections both public and private in the U.S. and internationally. Her preference for early morning back light creates a dynamic interplay between ground, trees, and various objects in the landscape. The meandering North Branch of the Jones Falls, lined with native white willow trees, contributes to mist-filled mornings, creating sublime landscapes worthy of photographic documentation.

HOFFBERGER GALLERY

VISUAL DIARIES:
LAND AND SEA
By Paula Reynolds
Exhibit: through June 24

About the Artist: Paula has been a Fine Art photographer for over 20 years, working in series, most notably Ocean and Landscape documentation. A graduate of The Maryland Institute College of Art, her photographs have been shown in several East Coast galleries and exhibitions, and are included in collections both public and private in the U.S. and internationally. Her preference for early morning back light creates a dynamic interplay between ground, trees, and various objects in the landscape. The meandering North Branch of the Jones Falls, lined with native white willow trees, contributes to mist-filled mornings, creating sublime landscapes worthy of photographic documentation.

BEING IN TOUCH AT CAMP
Our rabbis, cantors, and Brad Cohen, Director of Education, love to be in touch with our BHC kids while they are at summer camp. Please make sure that we have your child’s camp dates, name, and mailing address. Send them to Brad Cohen, bcohen@baltimorehebrew.org. Even in this digital age, it is fun to get an unexpected letter at camp.

PAUL’S PLACE CAMP
For the third year in a row we have the privilege of hosting one week of Paul’s Place Camp. (Paul’s Place is a resource center in Baltimore that serves the Pigtown/Sandtown Neighborhood, one of Baltimore poorest neighborhoods). Paul’s Place runs a free camp for 40 elementary age kids who otherwise wouldn’t have the means to go to summer camp. This year the camp will run Monday, July 15-22, July 22, and BHC teen volunteers need to be at BHC from 8:30 AM-4:30 PM daily. This camp is a great way to give back to our community, have your teen bond with other BHC teens, and earn 40 volunteer hours. We are able to host this camp due to the generosity of The Moses Fund and The Lois Rosenfield Caring Fund.
INFO: Brad Cohen, Director of Education, bcohen@baltimorehebrew.org.

TOUR DE TORAH
Tour de Torah is BHC’s Shabbat morning bike ride. Ride the NCR trail with fellow BHC cyclists, and stop to study Torah along the way. All levels of riders are welcome. More details to come.

ROSH HASHANAH UNDER THE STARS COMMITTEE
Do you want to be a part of Rosh Hashanah Under the Stars? We are looking for more members to join the planning committee, and would love to have you. The committee meets at BHC 3-5 times, leading up to Rosh Hashanah. You can take on a large or small role as you want. Join with us to continue to make it the best Rosh Hashanah Evening Service around. JOIN TODAY & INFO: Nicki Stratford, nstratford@baltimorehebrew.org or 410-764-1587 ext. 246.
