LEARNING
This spring has been full of all kinds of new learning for each of us individually and for BHC as well. I need not enumerate the many things we have been taught. Simply pause and consider all the new ideas and tasks that have entered our awareness. As a Jewish community, our tradition teaches us always to be open to learning. BHC is proud of our services, our social justice work, BHC Cares and more. Learning, we are taught, connects all our actions as a congregation. One of the names for a synagogue is a Beit Midrash, a house of study. 2020 has reminded us that as a congregation, our study extends beyond 7401 Park Heights Avenue. In our common imagination, summer is a time to relax, but I would also suggest that we imagine our learning this season or ponder how we might learn come fall.

FOR ADULTS
BHC has multiple adult learning opportunities through this summer, including Shabbat Torah Talk (Saturdays, 9 am), Summer Nights on Park Heights (July Tuesdays, 7 pm), Fill Your Cup (now Monday-Wednesday, 1:30 pm). Explore our new member-led book club, Whatever You’re Reading, a chance to read and discuss books together within your congregation. Fall will bring more PEP and further opportunities. Judaism has been sustained by our commitment to learning. As a congregation, let us lean into this tradition and its benefits.

FOR KIDS
Dynamic educational programs for our children and young families are a BHC hallmark. Summer opportunities, within and beyond BHC, are being communicated directly to those families with children in the appropriate age ranges. Our educational team, led by Rachel Opatowsky (Director of Education, please meet her), Jen Platt (Director of E. B. Hirsh Early Childhood Center), and Alicia Gallant (Assistant Director of Education) is working together with other staff and with lay task forces, for robust and exciting programs come fall. All summer long, BHC begins each online Friday night service with a 6 pm Story and Singing program, leading right into our 6:15 pm service. Let Shabbat be part of our learning.

– Rabbi Busch

NEED ASSISTANCE?
BHC’s clergy, staff and volunteers want to be able to support you if you face specific challenges during this Health Emergency. If you are officially quarantined or diagnosed as infected, please notify Jo Ann Windman, jwindman@baltimorehebrew.org. Jo Ann will make sure the appropriate person responds, even as BHC will hold your information confidential.
As we enter the summer and leave behind the cooler temperatures of winter and spring, I am taking a quick look back and pausing to reflect on how much has changed yet stayed the same.

The weather is warmer, and we are hibernating less in our homes because of the rising thermostat. Our lives have evolved from a physical presence for our work environment, our family, and our religion to a virtual world. What stays the same is that we continue to work, though remotely, and we visit family and our religious life, through Zoom.

I am most struck by how as a congregation we have made this transition with such a wonderful spirit of cooperation. Throughout the last 15 years, I have been on and off the Board of Electors, and I have been an officer now several times. What has not changed at all is the continued willingness of the clergy, staff, Board of Electors, and most importantly, our congregants to work together to provide the warm and welcoming place that Baltimore Hebrew Congregation has always been.

Even as the names may change, the desire to improve our education and worship opportunities and the devotion of all who are involved make the challenges that arise manageable. There are so many caring, smart, generous and thoughtful members of this congregation. Even after so many years I am reminded frequently that no matter what may come, BHC will move forward.

In the last few months I have spoken to many of you to help us to contemplate the current and future needs of our congregants. It has been my privilege to be introduced to so many of you that I had not previously known, and without fail my requests have been met with warmth and understanding and a wonderful spirit of caring for each other. I look forward to meeting the many congregants whom I have yet to meet.

We should remember that though we are a large entity with a diverse population, our tent continues to be a caring community of collaborative and committed people. Thanks to all of you.

John Elias
BHC President

BHC’S VIRTUAL COMMUNITY

Our congregation has mobilized itself to continue to connect us virtually, as a community and to our Judaism.

Please see the regular emails and baltimorehebrew.org for information, updates and creative offerings.

Our education programs are being carried out via Zoom, which is an app worth downloading and works beautifully on your computer. It works best with a camera and a microphone but can be utilized without them.

Our services are being offered via online streaming, and are also archived for later viewing. Visit https://venue.streamspot.com/de50dfb8 to follow along.

We encourage you also to follow the Baltimore Hebrew Congregation page on Facebook, where we communicate ideas and resources for the congregation.

ADULT EDUCATION

Spending this extra time at home may just open up your desire to dive into Jewish learning. During this Health Emergency, BHC is offering a range of Adult Education online via Zoom. Specifically, we are offering:

Fill Your Cup with BHC Adult Education at 1:30 pm Monday–Wednesday. Look online and in your email for the weekly schedule and daily links. Rabbi Busch, Rabbi Sachs-Kohen, Cantor Ellerin, Cantor Sacks and Rabbi Buchdahl are enjoying teaching online, with lots of interaction from members of the congregation. Throughout the summer join us each Wednesday, as the Women of BHC host their new series.

“Whatever You’re Reading” BHC Book Discussions: via Zoom
Thursdays, July 23 and August 20, 8 PM
Whether you’re relaxing with beach reading or digging into a hefty biography, wouldn’t it be fun to chat with others about the book? On these two summer Thursdays, we’ll gather in Zoom and then split up into chat rooms based on the book you want to discuss. The discussion will be better if you’ve read the book, but no one will kick you out if you haven’t. Would you like to lead one of the chats? Contact jmanko@baltimorehebrew.org. If you’re not interested in leading, grab a glass of your favorite beverage and join us for the discussion! BHC Briefly emails will include a list of books to be discussed.

All details for the above events will be shared in Monday and Thursday (Briefly) emails as well as on our website.

BHC & OUR CONGREGANTS TOGETHER
Baltimore Hebrew Congregation, like all strong congregations, is composed of congregants who participate, donate, and volunteer. BHC is blessed with wonderful clergy and staff, but our lifeblood is you, the congregants. During this Coronavirus year, BHC and our congregants have worked together to remain connected, to learn, to pray, and to serve the larger community. July 1 begins the new membership year. We encourage you to lean into your congregation. This is a time to continue, or even increase, your engagement, be it for your family’s education and identity or for your own spiritual and emotional fulfillment. Congregants with concerns and questions regarding financial commitments are always encouraged to contact Jo Ann Windman, jwindman@baltimorehebrew.org, 410-764-1587, ext. 223. BHC is always understanding, but especially during this challenging time.

CREDIT CARD USAGE
Effective July 1, 2020, credit cards will be accepted as payment for all BHC dues and fees with the exception of tuition for the E.B. Hirsh Early Childhood Center. You will no longer have the option to “opt out” of paying the service fee. This fee will be applied to your credit card.

NEXTGEN: THE MILLIE AND ALVIN BLUM 8TH-12TH GRADE TEEN PROGRAM

Online Social Justice Service Camp: July 6–10

Join us for a special opportunity to work closely with social justice leaders and activists to engage in acts of service directly benefiting local organizations in need, while spending some quality (virtual) time with your peers. This interactive and immersive virtual camp will provide you the opportunity to think critically, advocate for others, and mobilize to create a positive, tangible change in your community without leaving your home. No prior knowledge? No problem. Bring your open mind and a desire to learn.

This (virtual) online opportunity is perfect for teens who:
• Have an interest in making an impact in their communities.
• Enjoy serving others or want service hours.
• Like to meet new people and have fun.
• 1, 2, 3, 4, or 5 day options will be available.

This program is designed for students who will be in 8th-12th grades during the 2020-2021 school year. Students outside of this age range will be accepted on a case-by-case basis. Please contact Alicia Gallant, agallant@baltimorehebrew.org to inquire.

E.B. HIRSH EARLY CHILDHOOD CENTER

Right now we should be together at the E.B. Hirsh Early Childhood Center’s Summer Experience splashing through the sprinkler, eating delicious watermelon on the playground and having sing-a-longs filled with ruach (spirit). Instead we are social distancing in our homes and participating in activities via Zoom. Morah Irina is leading our Hebrew sing-a-longs with a focus on summertime. We are collecting a lot of virtual frequent flyer miles as we take virtual trips around the world. We traveled to Madagascar to visit the ring-tailed lemurs. Then we were off to Australia to see the koalas, wallabies, and kangaroos. You will have to wait until the next bulletin to see where our curiosity takes us.

I want to extend a big thank you to all the wonderful teachers at the E.B. Hirsh Early Childhood Center. As I complete my first year as director, I am very grateful for all your support, motivation, and dedication. Our team has flourished and continues to flourish as we work our way through this difficult time. We all have different skills and experiences, but the success of our team comes from the common goal of providing a safe and loving environment for the children at the E.B. Hirsh Early Childhood Center.

Jen Platt
Director

E.B. Hirsh Early Childhood Center Zoom Schedule:

Mondays:
11 AM: Summer Sing-a-long:
Come and learn Hebrew words while singing popular songs about summer with Morah Irina.

Wednesdays:
11 AM: Virtual Trips:

Thank you for your generous support of Annual Giving 2019. Because of YOU, we not only surpassed our goal, but your gift has enabled Baltimore Hebrew Congregation (BHC) to cover our operating expenses in addition to the myriad programs and services we provide, including:

• Innovative virtual programs offering new opportunities to worship, learn and celebrate our Judaism in a warm, embracing community, which are so important especially now in these tough times.
• Frequent repairs and upgrades required by our aging building and physical plant.
• Voluntary dues for young congregants. Financial hardship is never a barrier to engagement with BHC. Because of your support, no one is ever turned away.
• Pastoral care and life-cycle events.

Your beautiful gift to Annual Giving helps ensure that future generations will grow up in a strong community of Jewish tradition and learning at a warm, wonderful congregation where we all feel welcome. Thank you for your support of BHC.

Hi. I am Danny Duhan, your new Brotherhood President.

As the Brotherhood starts a new year, I am both humbled by the challenges all of us are experiencing, as well as energized by the dedication and resilience of our Brotherhood members. For over 100 years, the Brotherhood has consistently evolved to ensure meaningful and engaging programs that support both our members, as well as the greater BHC community. Today, the Brotherhood is continuing to evolve. We offer programs and opportunities for Brotherhood and non-Brotherhood members of all ages to learn, laugh, help others and have fun.

This year, the goal is to focus on three areas: membership engagement, collaboration and transparency. In June, all Brotherhood members were emailed a brief survey soliciting feedback on both existing programs, as well as potential new programs and activities. Many of you regularly attend and love our Brotherhood programs, such as our Sunday morning breakfast speaker series. As good as they are, there is always room for innovation. Your feedback is very important to us. If you did not receive the survey, please let me know.

In addition to the survey, the Brotherhood has reconstituted its Long-Range Planning Committee under the leadership of Richard Fishkin. Richard, along with members David Beller, Jordan Loran, Harry Macks, Marc Plisko, Oscar Schabb, and Roger Wolff, are exploring ways to address Brotherhood’s challenges and future opportunities.

In closing, I want to thank my predecessor, Sid Bravmann, for leading the Brotherhood the last four years, as well as all the Brotherhood officers and past presidents for their dedication and support.

Danny Duhan, Brotherhood President
