“JUST BREATHE” AND “I VOTED EARLY”

A few years ago, I was walking into a class with my bag slung over my shoulder and a water bottle in my hand. On it was embossed the words “Just Breathe,” and a sticker I had taken from my shirt adorned its top, “I Voted Early.” I realized that these are two pillars of an engaged Jewish life.

During that retreat, we had prayed together in a beautiful service that focused on the morning prayer Elohai N’shama, which expresses gratitude that God has returned our soul to us after the long night of sleep. In Hebrew, the word that means soul also means breath and it is there that my understanding of the breathing as a soul-practice begins. Intentionally drawing breath and paying attention to it is one of the most powerful actions a human being can take to move out of a place of upset, overwhelmingness, anxiety and fear. (There’s been a lot of neuroscience lately to explain why it works, but most of us know empirically that it does). The holiness, power and mystery of breathing is a pillar of Jewish life.

Voting is another pillar. Our presence as Jews in a nation which gives us the full freedom to express our values through participation in our own governance is relatively new in our 5000+ year history. Those values, though, are nothing new to Jews as a people. Our Torah is rife with civic lessons about fairness, justice and equality. Before we knew that we should light Shabbat candles (which doesn’t happen until after the destruction of the Temple), we are commanded to seek justice, to hear the cry of the widow, the orphan, the stranger, to appoint unassailable judges, to maintain a foundation of fair business and commerce, etc. etc. In America, we have the incredible privilege of voting for people who can make those things happen.

Our upcoming national elections may require extra breaths. The turmoil created by so many factors this year means we have to work harder to be sure our votes count and that every American has the opportunity to vote freely and fairly. Using our breath to ground ourselves can support us through the necessary work of upholding justice, compassion, and equality. In coming weeks, look for BHC initiatives to promote civic engagement and voting. Then take a breath and join in the work.

NEED ASSISTANCE?

BHC’s clergy, staff and volunteers want to be able to support you if you face specific challenges during this Health Emergency. If you are officially quarantined or diagnosed as infected, please notify Jo Ann Windman, jwindman@baltimorehebrew.org. Jo Ann will make sure the appropriate person responds, even as BHC will hold your information confidential.
A NEW YEAR

As the last few weeks of summer are winding down, we can begin to look forward to the High Holidays and a New Year. It goes without saying that the past few months have presented challenges to us all in varying ways.

Our worship this year will be unique, and yet it will contain most of the key components that make our High Holy Days experience so fulfilling. Every year at this time our clergy are preparing the services and their respective sermons, and this year is no different in that regard. Obviously, we would have preferred an in-person worship, but everyone's safety and health must be paramount as we navigate through the pandemic.

If you turn to the BHC website you will see that we will be offering you an opportunity to make a reservation to drive through and pick up the High Holy Days Prayer Books in BHCs parking lot (see 2020 Prayer Book Reservation), and the opportunity to visit the open Sanctuary Ark (see Visiting the Ark). We want to thank the Brotherhood for the coordination of this project. We will be praying virtually (Distanced Yet Together: Home For The Holy Days) with each service provided by the streaming we have done so successfully. All of our most treasured services will be provided, including: Rosh Hashanah Under Your Stars, Rosh Hashanah morning, Kol Nidre, Yom Kippur morning, Yizkor and Neilah. We know you will want to be part of each one (please consult the schedule on page 5 for the times).

We are most appreciative of the clergy preparing, practicing music, and writing sermons, and staff for their energy, love and devotion and for their tireless efforts to allow BHC to continue to provide all of the services and programming that are so important to us all.

Let this New Year of 5781 be filled with health, hope, peace and spirituality. May our Baltimore Hebrew Congregation community move forward through worshiping together. L'Shanah Tovah!

John I. Elias
BHC President
2020 HIGH HOLY DAY INFORMATION

Distanced Yet TOGETHER: Home for the Holy Days 2020/5781

This year will be a little different. Our venues will all be virtual, but filled with the same spirituality and meaning from our larger community based services.

UNIQUE TO 2020:
BHC’s 2020 High Holy Days will include a mixture of

- Services Streamed at Specific Times: There will only be one service offered for each time. After the service finishes, it will be available via Streamspot archive at the same link.
- Interactive Opportunities, such as discussions, learning, PJ services, and Youth opportunities.
- Creative Options which you can choose to experience at any time on the holiday, including Music and Meditation. These become available at 9 AM on the morning prior to the holiday.

All access links for these three types of High Holy Day 2020 experiences can be found at baltimorehebrew.org/praying/high-holy-days-2020/. You do not need an access code or password to participate in BHC’s High Holy Days this year.

PREPARING FOR THE HIGH HOLY DAYS:

PRAYERBOOK RESERVATIONS
Prayer book reservations are for members only during the High Holy Days. Reserve your prayer books visit: baltimorehebrew.org/forms/2020-prayer-book-reservation/. Come and pick up your borrowed books at a scheduled time. Digital versions of our prayer books are also available: ccarnet.org/publications/hhd/.

ARK VISITS
Missing the Sanctuary at BHC? Though we are not able to pray together in person during this year’s High Holy Days, you and up to 5 members of your family can schedule a visit to spend a few moments in our sacred space, visit the Torahs and Ark, and reflect and find comfort together. We will have meditations and prayers available for you to read together while you visit.

For more information: baltimorehebrew.org/highholydays2020/visiting-the-ark/

To schedule a visit: signgenius.com/go/10c0d4ca82ba7fcc8-arkvisits

DAILY ELUL MESSAGES
Throughout the month of Elul, we are preparing for the High Holy Days. Each morning we are sending you reflections from our clergy, BHC members, staff, and lay leaders. Each week will come with a separate theme: self reflection, gratitude, community, and joy.

SHOFAR AROUND TOWN
Keep your eyes open for email announcements and on our website about Shofar Around Town, opportunities to hear the sounding of the shofar near you. We will sound the shofar during the Rosh Hashanah Morning Service, but we know BHC members will want to experience the actual sounding of the shofar, safe and outside.

FOOD DRIVE
The 2020 High Holy Day Food Drive for GEDCO Cares Food Pantry will kick off during our Prayer Book Reservation Pick-Ups. Inside the brown paper bag with the prayer books is a letter from the clergy and details on this years Food Drive. Please return your prayer books along with your donations inside the brown paper bag on your scheduled return date. BHC is a proud member of GEDCO–Govans Ecumenical Development Corporation. For a list of what to give visit: baltimorehebrew.org/uploads/Events/2018/GEDCO_flyer_2018.pdf. INFO: Jillian Manko, 410-764-1587, ext. 246 or jmanko@baltimorehebrew.org.

CEMETERY SERVICES AND VISITS
Services will not be held at the cemetery this year due to physical distancing, but we have gathered a collection of prayers and readings that you can use on your own. Visit: baltimorehebrew.org/highholydays2020/cemetery-visits/

PRAYERBOOK RESERVATIONS
Services will not be held at the cemetery this year due to physical distancing, but we have gathered a collection of prayers and readings that you can use on your own. Visit: baltimorehebrew.org/highholydays2020/cemetery-visits/

PJ HIGH HOLY DAY SERVICES
Join in for virtual services for toddlers and young children. Led by BHC’s clergy, these brief services will provide a Zoom-ful helping of energy, music, community, and a story.

RABBI STUDY SESSIONS
Rabbi Busch, Rabbi Sachs-Kohen, and Rabbi Rex D. Perlmeter, Emeritus, will each be leading interactive study sessions via Zoom. Rabbi Sachs-Kohen’s session will be a discussion with Dr. Brad Braxton, of The Open Church of Maryland.
YOM KIPPURO PROGRAM OF MUSIC & MEDITATION

The annual Ruth and Robert M. Taubman z”l Program of Music and Meditation is entitled “A Time of Reflection, Resilience and Hope” and will feature a variety of wonderful congregant readers, singers and instrumentalists. This is a perfect way to pause and reflect on the meaning of the day with beautiful music and poetry chosen especially for Yom Kippur contemplation during a reflective hour between the morning and afternoon Yom Kippur services, you can listen to whenever you want on or after Yom Kippur. This service is coordinated by BHC congregant Maria Lambros Kannen.

GUIDED MEDITATION

Join congregant Liora Brunn to explore how Yom Kippur can help quiet our thinking mind to become more present and in touch with our yetzer hatov—our inclination to do good.

CONNECTING TO THE PROPHETS, A 3 PART SERIES

In a pre-recorded three part series, Rabbi Gus Buchdahl, Emanuel Emeritus, & Susanna Garfein, PhD, will discuss the High Holy Day Haftarah portions: First Samuel 1-2, Isaiah 58, and Jonah, which will be chanted during these discussions. They explore these prophetic passages from many perspectives and connect them to our lives.

CHANTING & UNDERSTANDING KOL NIDRE

Listen to an extra Kol Nidre, chanted by Cantorial Intern Becky Mann, followed by a discussion about the power of this prayer and its music between Becky, Cantor Ellerin and Rabbi Debbie Pine.

SUKKOT AND SIMCHAT TORAH

Shortly after Yom Kippur, celebrate in the evenings and mornings of these next holidays. There will be no Sanctuary sukkah this year, but guests are joining together in this way. You can access the services at venue.streamspot.com/de50dfb8. No registration is required and any computer should be able to access the experience.

VIDEOSTREAMING

BHC is currently experiencing all our High Holy Day and Shabbat services via videostreaming. We are thankful that so many of our members and guests are joining together in this way. You can access the services at venue.streamspot.com/de50dfb8. No registration is required and any computer should be able to access the experience.

Help lead tefilah (prayer) for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur youth programming over Zoom. Teens who chose this option will get trained in Zoom moderation and will have the ability to create their roles and choose their own volunteer hours.

PEP: PURSUING EDUCATIONAL POSSIBILITIES: via Zoom
Sunday mornings, October 11, 18, 25 and November 1, 15, 22
PEP is a chance for adults to study together on select Sunday mornings in a casual and friendly Zoom setting. The Fall 2020 offerings October 11, 18, 25 and November 1, 15, 22 are:
9:30-10:30 AM: Exploring Documents of American Jewish History: taught by Rabbi Busch
Together, we will read key letters, speeches and other documents to better understand key events and trends across American Jewish history. Read, question, and explore the documents, the individuals, and the events.
10:45-11:45 AM: Becoming Wise: An Inquiry into the Mystery and Art of Living by Krista Tippett: taught by Rabbi Sachs-Kohen
We will discuss excerpts from the book described this way by its publisher: In Becoming Wise, Krista Tippett has created a master class in living for a fractured world. Fracture, she says, is not the whole story of our time. The enduring question of what it means to be human has become inextricable from the challenge of who we are to one another. She insists on the possibility of personal depth and common life for this century, nurtured by science and “spiritual technologies” with civility and love as a muscular public practice.

To be included in the PEP email list, contact Ruth Spivak, spivakcpa@verizon.net.

BHC Cares

BHC Cares volunteers give, and we gain. As we touch the lives of others, we improve our own lives. Our volunteers call members who are mainly homebound. A simple phone call lets people know we do care! We are adding names to our list at this time, as more of our congregants are not able to get out, due to our current times. To be a part of this important project, contact coordinator, Lynette Berman, lynetteberman@yahoo.com or 410-484-6853.

We have been arranging meals for members of our congregational family who are welcoming a new baby, recuperating from an illness, or dealing with the death of a loved one. A meal delivered can make a difference. At this time, our volunteers are not able to prepare food themselves, and we thank Classic Caterers for the help that allows us to continue this special project. Thanks to our supportive committee member, Sharon Edlow, who has been coordinating this service. Now, Jean Fedder will take over. To help, contact Jean, 410-486-4134 or mdboard@aol.com.

For more information, to offer suggestions, or to volunteer, contact caroljc@comcast.net or call 410-764-4587 ext. 270.

Remember, volunteering is a way to share and give back.

All details for the above events will be shared in Monday and Thursday (Briefly) emails as well as on our website. (https://www.baltimorehebrew.org/about/virtual-schedule/).

BHC B’BAYIT - BHC AT HOME

Dear Youth Education Families,

We want to make sure you know that Youth Education at Baltimore Hebrew Congregation will be online in the fall semester. This online opportunity will be called BHC B’Bayit - BHC At Home. This decision was not made lightly, and we will revisit for the spring. We are thankful for the work of the Youth Education Task Force, chaired by Jodi Akst, in assisting the staff in making this decision.

BHC B’Bayit - BHC At Home will be held on Sunday mornings from 9:30–11:30 AM, with built-in breaks. Our first day of BHC B’Bayit is September 13.

We have kept our schedule similar to the layout of Youth Education where students have time for grade level Judaics, Hebrew, and are able to choose an elective. Our planning and expectations understand the flexibility required for Jewish education this year especially. BHC B’Bayit’s consistency will help our students feel more at home with our new offering. Also, our NextGen: The Millie and Alvin Blum 8th–12th Grade Teen Program at BHC is filled with opportunity for the fall.

To register for BHC B’Bayit, email Rachel Opatowsky, ropatowsky@baltimorehebrew.org. BHC Youth Education will continue to be interactive, engaging and content-rich. This registration takes a moment (five minutes or less). Please update your info by visiting: bhcyoutheducation.wufoo.com/forms/p4cx5291vcmid5/. Registering helps our planning and will help me get to know families and students. If you have questions or suggestions about Youth Education for next year, feel free to email, ropatowsky@baltimorehebrew.org or call 410-764-1587 x290.

In addition to our Sundays of Youth Education in the fall, we are adding a variety of options for families who would like an alternative experience to Sunday mornings.

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL BOXES

For families that Sunday mornings may not work for their schedule, we are offering families to sign up for monthly boxes that will be picked up at BHC. There will also be family check ins throughout the month. For this option, register for Youth Education or email ropatowsky@baltimorehebrew.org.

ONE ON ONE TUTORING

For families that need a more personal approach, please reach out to ropatowsky@baltimorehebrew.org if you feel that your child would benefit from one on one tutoring rather than class time on Sundays.

CHAVURAH

Chavurot (plural of Chavurah) are informal small groups of congregation members, which meet regularly, usually, once a month, to create bonds of friendship. Members decide how often they meet, where, and what activities take place. Chavurot are a way for members to create a small community of friends by socializing, learning, doing mitzvot and celebrating Jewish life together. If you are interested in joining a chavurah, sign up by emailing ropatowsky@baltimorehebrew.org.

Additionally, we will be looking for possibilities to bring us together when possible:

POP-UP EVENTS

As allowed, we will offer small in-person family programming outside at BHC. These gatherings will each be limited to a smaller number of people and will be an opportunity to bring families together face to face. More details about pop-ups as each one is announced.

Financial challenges shouldn’t stand in the way of your child’s Jewish education and your family’s congregation membership. If you need assistance, contact Jo Ann Windman, jwindman@baltimorehebrew.org or call 410-764-1587 x223.

I encourage you to reach out to me if you would like to talk about Youth Education or set up a one on one meeting. I am eager to get to know your family better and I look forward to connecting with you soon.

E.B. HIRSH EARLY CHILDHOOD CENTER

When we were last in school, the Orioles were in the midst of spring training in Sarasota, Florida and preparing to head north at the end of the month. Around the same time, we had finished celebrating Purim and were getting ready to learn about Passover.

Then it happened, the COVID shut down.

Two things I look forward to the most, going to work each day and seeing my “work family” and watching baseball in person or on television.

Fast forward to July, where there is a brief sense of normalcy returning to Baltimore. Major League Baseball held a brief summer camp before the July 24 opening, and we were diligently working on the procedures for opening the E.B. Hirsh Early Childhood Center on August 24, after months of being closed.

Now, here we are on the eve of our first day of school in over five months. Just like the Orioles, we held our training camp also known as in-service. This year we met via Zoom and our focus was on learning about the State of Maryland COVID Regulations for Early Childhood Education Centers. Where the Orioles were practicing baserunning and hitting, we were practicing how the children are going to be dropped off each morning and how to have a normal class routine in the midst of physical distancing.

After hours of working in the classrooms and the office, we were ready for our exhibition game/practice day on August 21. We were seeing our fans, the families for the first time in a long time. Yes, many of the children saw us on Zoom, but seeing each other in person was so much better.

We opened our school on Monday August 24, and just like Major League Baseball, there were no fans in the stands or for us, no parents in the building. There were some tears, because at times, yes there is crying in pre-school. I have an All-Star Team of teachers who are ready for our 10-month school season. As their “manager,” I am full of anticipation and excitement and maybe some butterflies. I know deep down we are going to knock it out of the park! We are ready to provide our children with a safe and nurturing environment.

I take this opportunity to thank my “General Manager” or Chair of the E.B. Hirsh Early Childhood Center Advisory Committee, Laurie Duhan. She was the “Iron Woman,” who helped lead us to where we are today. She might not have played 2,131 games in a row, but it did seem like she worked over 2,131 hours. Thank you to the BHC Staff and Leadership, the Executive Committee, and the Clergy. I do not think we would have gotten this far without your support and commitment to the E.B. Hirsh Early Childhood Center.

BROTHERHOOD NEWS

Fall is just around the corner; the O’s and the Ravens are back (somewhat) and the High Holy Days are only a few weeks away. While some things are still the same, the Brotherhood is planning for the future.

First, let us discuss the 2020 member survey... 44% of the total Brotherhood membership participated in the survey. About a quarter of the responses were from members who typically do not attend a Brotherhood event. Participants were asked to rate several potential new programs, as well as existing activities.

Strong likes were our traditional breakfast speaker series, held in-person or virtually, as well as social activities and speakers discussing our local sports teams. Many programs were “on the bubble,” meaning satisfaction with the program was driven more by who was presenting or where the event was being held rather than the type of program being offered.

From the survey we know that a vast majority of our members want to come to events. They like the camaraderie and fellowship they experience at Brotherhood activities, but they do not come, because they are looking for more variety. The survey generated over 40 suggestions for potential new programs.

The Brotherhood followed up the survey with two brainstorming sessions which generated even more recommendations for engagement opportunities and future programs. The overall result is that we are well positioned for the year.

So, what is next? Change is hard. It takes courage. It takes a willingness to look beyond today and see the world 3-5 years into the future. The journey of change starts with the first step. While we are just starting our journey, already we are seeing positive signs: increased participation on committees and taskforces, as well as new ideas regarding traditional Brotherhood programs.

Speaking of programs... October kicks off with our opening event featuring Sopranos Jocelyn Taylor and Sarah Baumgarten for a night of Jewish and African-American Music. In November, Dr. George Korch, Director, National Biodefense Analysis and Countermeasures Center (NBACC), will discuss epidemics and pandemics.

This is in addition to our usher activities, such as the distribution of High Holy Day prayer books, under the leadership of Richard Peterson.

You can see all the programs, events, meetings and activities, on Brotherhood’s new website: https://www.baltimorehebrew.org/brotherhood/bhc-brotherhood/. Thank you to Stu Cohen and Brian Rogers for their hard work making this happen.

In closing, we hear you loud and clear – You want more diverse programs that are current and relevant. Don’t stop sending your suggestions and recommendations.

Dear Fellow Congregants,

As the High Holy Days approach, we take a break from our usual activities and reflect on what is important to us as Jews: the health and well-being of our loved-ones, the sacrifices of our ancestors, our shared heritage, improving our society and environment, and much more.

As you may be aware, each year, funds raised through Annual Giving gives momentum and strength to the enduring vision of BHC. It is through your commitment and generosity to our congregation that we are able to provide an inclusive, educational and spiritual space for all who seek it. As we continue in our efforts to enrich the lives of our members and provide a center of worship, life-long learning and self-discovery, your gift to Annual Giving will make a tangible impact.

We have all chosen Baltimore Hebrew Congregation as our home for Reform Jewish worship, education, culture, and social action. We are indeed blessed with wise, compassionate clergy, a beautiful synagogue and a warm, embracing community. We pray together, study together, celebrate together and mourn together. BHC has something for members of all ages and interests. However, our membership dues do not cover the costs of BHC’s services, activities and programs, nor the upkeep of our aging building or the maintenance of our lovely campus. We depend on the generosity of all of you to ensure our fiscal stability and to make certain that no one is denied affiliation for financial reasons especially in this tough time.

Please answer your phone when one of our dedicated volunteers calls for your 2020-2021 Annual Giving pledge! If your gift is received by the end of the year, you will receive a charitable gift deduction on your 2020 income tax.

We count on your support and involvement to sustain our wonderful, vibrant and essential congregation. Please pledge generously.

THE WOMEN OF BHC

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS FOR 2020-2022:

Women of Baltimore Hebrew Congregation (WBHC) is proud to announce the recent election and installation of its officers for 2020-2022:

President: Helene H. Waranch
Vice President of Fundraising: Suzanne Crone
Vice President of Congregation/Community: Lisa Jablon
Vice of Administration: Barbara Sindler
Recording Secretary: Ralene Jacobson
Corresponding Secretary: Harriet Stulman
Treasurer: Pam Russell
Auditor: Ann Fishkin

Nine women agreed to join the Board of Directors for 2020-2023
Paula Cohen  Marsha Kalisch  Dr. Joanne Neff
Susan Cohen  Janet Livingston  Linda Roedel
Marcia Gampel  Susan Lorch  Amy Seldowitz

Together the Board of Directors and officers have agreed on three important priorities for this administration for which we also need the support of our membership and that of the congregation:
1. Create and disseminate a calendar of upcoming events and programs
2. Increase in attendance at programs
3. Expand membership, participation and involvement

We hope many of you will become members of WBHC through congregational billing and choose to attend events, volunteer and get involved. Email us, womenofbhc@gmail.com.

The WBHC officers and board members wish everyone a healthy and safe New Year.

Helene H. Waranch
President

ANTIRACISM AT BHC

Since 2015, there has been a small (but growing!) number of congregants working to educate about and advocate for policies that address structural and systemic racism. Starting with this bulletin, we’ll be updating you about our work. As a place to start, I thought it would be useful to provide a sort of FAQ:

How is racism a Jewish issue?

The Jewish community is multiracial and multi-ethnic. Though European-heritage Ashkenazic Jews are the majority of the U.S. Jewish population, Jews of color make up between eight and 20% of our numbers. This means racism directly affects Jews. Additionally, since Jews have a history of being targets of oppression, we have an obligation to interrupt oppression when we can—just as we recognize the role of the “righteous among the nations” in fighting antisemitism historically.

Why do you call yourselves antiracists instead of something more positive?

“Antiracism” is the term accepted for the work of dismantling systems of racial oppression. It hearkens to Angela Davis’ quote of 40 years ago: “In a racist society, it is not enough to be non-racist. We must be anti-racist.” Because racism is baked into society’s foundational narratives, policies, systems and infrastructures, our work to correct it is fundamentally subversive, and that subversiveness is directed at both policy and culture.

CONNECT TO BHC DIGITALLY
One way BHC builds community is by providing targeted emails regarding different topics and community initiatives. If you are interested, you can sign up for emails regarding:
• Adult learning opportunities
• Notices about deaths and life-cycle events
• Social justice opportunities
You can also sign up to get email from Brotherhood and Women of BHC. Occasionally, BHC sends out news to the whole congregation, but we try to keep those communications to a minimum, except for our Briefly BHC email. We hope you are receiving that weekly. To sign up for any of these email lists contact Jo Ann Windman, jwindman@baltimorehebrew.org. And don’t forget to interact with us on social media—follow us on Facebook.
