

2019 NIGHT OF THE STARS HONOREES: PEGGY K. & FRED WOLF III

Peggy and Fred's life work is a shining celebration of service. They are true leaders in the Community and Baltimore Hebrew Congregation (BHC). Night of the Stars 2019 celebrates the achievements of Peggy and Fred, who have each impacted BHC and the Baltimore community in their own right.

Peggy K. Wolf is a life-long congregant and past president of Baltimore Hebrew Congregation. Peggy spent her career in independent schools, first teaching at Gilman School and then serving as Director of Admissions at Roland Park Country School. She earned her bachelor's and master's degree in Education from the George Washington University. Peggy currently serves on the board of the Pearlstone Center, Hopkins Hillel and My Sister's Circle; having earlier served in the leadership of the Baltimore Jewish Council, Central Scholarship Bureau, the Jewish Community Center of Baltimore, among others.

Fred Wolf III practices law at Ballard Spahr, having previously served as an assistant attorney general and counsel to the Maryland Department of Economic and Community Development. The focus of Fred's practice is in representing public and private institutions, as well as individuals, involved in a wide variety of real estate transactions. Fred earned his bachelor's at Dartmouth College and his law degree at George Washington University Law School. He has served as the chair of the boards of Jewish Family Services, University of Maryland Hillel, and the Mount Washington Pediatric Hospital. Fred currently serves on the boards of the Mount Washington Pediatric Hospital and The Associated Jewish Charities.

Peggy and Fred have 2 children and four grandchildren. We honor Peggy and Fred, stars who exemplify the warm and inviting spirit of Baltimore Hebrew Congregation.

